ADVERTISEMENT.

The 1st April 1880. 347

A large quantity of unserviceable stores consisting of old iron, brass, lead, copper, leather waist belts, leather belts and pouches, bayonet scabbards, powder barrells, flints, turn screws, screw plates, mamoties, pickaxes, rovties and other sundries will be sold by public auction at the Savar and Barr Military Stores adjoining the Government Printing Office on Thursday the 8th instant at 12 o'clock.

The iron consists principally of broken musket and pistol barrells.

The lead weighing about 4,600 lbs. is in pigs.

Terms of Sale.

All lots to be paid for before removal and to be cleared by the purchasers on the day. All uncleared lots will, after the expiration of three days, be sold either by public or private sale at the risk of the first purchaser.

Each lot will be at the risk of the purchaser from the time it is knocked down to him.

In case of any dispute arising between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up to competition again.

By order of the Military Assistant,

R. H. JAMES,
Manager.

Mysore Government Press, Bangalore.—1880.